Construction Signage to be Installed Along Bower Parkway Welcomes Shoppers

Signage posted along Bower Parkway beginning Friday, February 25 will include familiar construction messages while others will read, “We’re Working, but Shoppers Welcomed.”

The City of Columbia Public Works Street Division wants to make it clear that during construction shoppers will be able to get in and out of the stores along the 1.5 mile strip.

On Monday, February 28 at 11 p.m. Bower Parkway will be closed from the entrance of Target to PetSmart until further notice. Construction is set begin on March 1.
