Sgraffito (Italian means “to scratch”) is a decorating technique produced by applying layers of color or colors (underglazes or colored slips) to leather hard pottery and then scratching off parts of the layer (s) to create contrasting images, patterns and texture and reveal the clay color underneath. Students will practice on clay tiles which will be provided and then do their own pots. Students should bring: 2 leather hard pots; clay tools; different size loop tools; soft brush.

Registration fee: $40; Class size limited to a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 10. participants; Registration deadline: Saturday, October 27.

Sweet Grass Basket Weaving (Instruction by Mary Graham Grant)

November 17, 2018 (Saturday)

12-4 pm

Columbia Art Center, 1227 Taylor Street, Ste. C, Columbia SC 29201

Sweet grass basketry is an African art form that has been practiced continuously in South Carolina for over three hundred years. Wherever rice was grown on the South Atlantic coast, coiled baskets were used in the harvest. During the long decline of rice production from the Civil War to World War I, African American basket makers continued to sew baskets on plantations and on the small family arms they had acquired. Learn the techniques to sew your own basket.

Registration fee: $60 per person; Class size limited to a minimum of 4 and a maximum of 12. Registration deadline: Saturday, November 3, 2018. All materials included. Participants must bring a pair of scissors. Nail bone can be purchased for $5.
